SUNDAY 13th MARCH 2022
SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Welcome especially if this is your first visit or if you haven't been to church in a while! If you would like say hello to one of the clergy or the hospitality team please do (hiding behind a pillar is fine too if you're a bit shy!) This booklet contains everything you need to follow this service, please join in as far as you would like but don't worry about remembering when to stand, or kneel, or sit, go along with what feels comfortable. A collection is taken during the Offertory Hymn, this helps to pay for the upkeep of the church and more importantly it helps to keep the mission and outreach of the church going, please give what you can. If you pay tax please fill out a Gift-Aid envelope, this allows us to claim extra dosh from the Government!

A Prayer for Ukraine

May we pray for the world that in this moment of crisis that we may be able to reach out in solidarity and love to our brothers and sisters in need. May we walk in your ways so that peace and justice become a reality particularly for the people of Ukraine (and also for the people of Russia) and for all the world. Bring wisdom, compassion and courage to our leaders that, in Your name, they may soon find a way forward to end the bloodshed and despair now prevailing in Ukraine.

Amen.

The Introductory Rites

As the bell is rung all stand as the clergy approach the altar. As he comes to the altar the priest prays a silent prayer of preparation, he kisses the altar because it contains (or should contain!) a relic and so asks for the saint's prayers for us all. The altar is a symbol of Jesus here with and so is treated with great respect. We sing the Introit hymn:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 'Forgive our sins as we forgive'
You taught us, Lord, to pray;
But you alone can grant us grace
To live the words we say | 3 In blazing light your Cross reveals
The truth we dimly knew,
How small the debts men owe to us,
How great our debt to you. |
| 2 How can your pardon reach and bless
The unforgiving heart
That broods on wrongs, and will not let
Old bitterness depart? | 4 Lord, cleanse the depths within our souls,
And bid resentment cease;
Then, reconciled to God and man,
Our lives will spread your peace.
Rosamond Herklots |

Priest	+ In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
All	Amen
Priest	The Lord be with you.
All	And with your Spirit.

The priest invites us to offer to God the times that we have done things we should not have done, knowing that God forgives all who are truly sorry. This means we can begin worship knowing we have been set right with God.

All	I confess to almighty God and to you my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, and, striking their breast, all say through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask Blessed Mary, ever Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.
Priest	May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.
All	Amen

Following confession, with the priest we say the Kyrie, this is an ancient part of the mass and is frequently said in Greek, one of the three sacred languages of Christianity (Latin and Hebrew being the other two), these languages are considered sacred because they are the three languages used on the notice placed with Christ on the Cross and so are considered to be deeply connected to our salvation.

Priest	Lord, have mercy.	or	Kyrie eleison.
All	Lord, have mercy.	or	Kyrie eleison.
Priest	Christ, have mercy.	or	Christe eleison.
All	Christ, have mercy.	or	Christe eleison.
Priest	Lord, have mercy.	or	Kyrie eleison.
All	Lord, have mercy.	or	Kyrie eleison.

As Lent is a season of penance and preparation we don't sing the Gloria as we would normally do, this reminds us that this is a less celebratory time of year.

The priest prays the Collect which sums up all our prayers for the day. After the prayer we sit for the readings, which come from the Old Testament (the ancient Jewish Scriptures that Jesus would have known), followed by a psalm, then from the Epistles (Letters) of Paul, Peter, or John &c. (the early writings of the church that helped shape and develop it) and finally a Gospel passage (a reading from the lives and teachings of Jesus).

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18

A reading from the book of Genesis

Taking Abram outside, the Lord said, 'Look up to heaven and count the stars if you can.' 'Such will be your descendants,' he told him. Abram put his faith in the Lord, who counted this as making him justified.

'I am the Lord' he said to him 'who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldaeans to make you heir to this land.' 'My Lord,' Abram replied 'how am I to know that I shall inherit it?' He said to him, 'Get me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove and a young pigeon.' He brought him all these, cut them in half and put half on one side and half facing it on the other; but the birds he did not cut in half. Birds of prey came down on the carcasses but Abram drove them off.

When the sun had set and darkness had fallen, there appeared a smoking furnace and a firebrand that went between the halves. That day the Lord made a Covenant with Abram in these terms:

'To your descendants I give this land, from the wadi of Egypt to the Great River.'

Psalm 26(27):1,7-9,13-14

The Response is:

The Lord is my light and my help.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 The Lord is my light and my help;
whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
before whom shall I shrink? R | 3 It is your face, O Lord, that I seek;
hide not your face.
Dismiss not your servant in anger;
you have been my help. R |
| 2 O Lord, hear my voice when I call;
have mercy and answer.
Of you my heart has spoken;
'Seek his face.' R | 4 I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness in the land of the living.
Hope in him, hold firm and take heart.
Hope in the Lord! R |

Second Reading

Philippians 3:17-4:1

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

My brothers, be united in following my rule of life. Take as your models everybody who is already doing this and study them as you used to study us. I have told you often, and I repeat it today with tears, there are many who are behaving as the enemies of the cross of Christ. They are destined to be lost. They make foods into their god and they are proudest of something they ought to think shameful; the things they think important are earthly things. For us, our homeland is in heaven, and from heaven comes the saviour we are waiting for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and he will transfigure these wretched bodies of ours into copies of his glorious body. He will do that by the same power with which he can subdue the whole universe.

So then, my brothers and dear friends, do not give way but remain faithful in the Lord. I miss you very much, dear friends; you are my joy and my crown.

We stand as the Gospel is heralded

Priest	Glory and praise to you, O Christ! From the bright cloud the Father's voice was heard: 'This is my Son, the Beloved. Listen to him.'
All	Glory and praise to you, O Christ!

The Gospel

Luke 9:28-36

Priest The Lord be with you
All And with your Spirit

Priest + A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.
All Glory to you, O Lord

The text of the Gospel is omitted in order that you may listen to it more attentively

At the end:

Priest The Gospel of the Lord
All Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

The Homily

We sit for the Homily, this is a short talk about the readings we have just heard or the theme of the day. Its purpose is to help us better understand the scriptures and how wisdom and advice that is so old can still help us today. After the homily comes the Creed for which we stand. This is the Church's statement of belief and the word Creed comes from the Latin word for 'I believe.' If you are new to church or not a Christian do not feel you have to say the words with us. Have a read of them before the service (or if the Homily is boring then!) and if you feel you can agree with the words you are most welcome to join in saying them.

The Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father, and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead + and the life of the world to come. Amen.

We remain standing for the prayers.

The Universal Prayers

These prayers are short ones in which we ask God to hear our petitions for particular people and situations. If you have something or someone you would like praying for in the week at mass or next Sunday please let us know and we'll be happy to include it. It is normal to pray for the Church, the world, the local community, those who are sick or in need, and those who have died.

Intercessor	Lord, in your mercy,	or	Lord, hear us
All	Hear our prayer		Lord, graciously hear us.

Towards the end the intercessor introduces the Hail Mary, the hymn of praise of Jesus' Mother. It is composed from the Angel Gabriel's greeting to Mary, and words spoken to her by her cousin Elizabeth in the first sentence; the second reflects the belief and hope that those who are in heaven, and especially Mary, are our friends and family can pray for us as we pray now for our friends around us here on earth.

All Hail Mary full of grace, the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now, and at the hour of our death. Amen

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

At the offertory the altar is prepared, the sacred vessels, the chalice (cup) and paten (plate) are laid out and the gifts of bread and wine are offered back to God who first gave them to us. To mark these things out as holy offerings set aside for God blessings particular prayers are said. The priest washes his hands asking for purity (and practically its more hygienic, especially in these Covid times).

After the priest has said the offertory prayers and censed the gifts, he too is censed and then the congregation, when the server bows to us we stand and bow in return. The priest prays silently asking Our Lady the saints will join with us in prayer, he then asks us to pray with and for him:

Priest	Pray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.
All	May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy church.

The priest then prays the prayer over the gifts before beginning the Eucharistic (thanksgiving) Prayer, saying:

The priest goes on to say or sing the Preface, this speaks to the theme of the day on special occasions or reminds us of important things to do with Jesus' mission to. It begins the Eucharistic Prayer which is a remembering of the Last Supper certainly, but most especially it is the re-presenting of Jesus' sacrifice of himself on the Cross. The preface ends with words used to greet Jesus when he entered Jerusalem on Palm Sunday.

All Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
Heaven and Earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
+ Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord
Hosanna in the highest.

All kneel or sit and the priest continues with the prayer during which the gifts of bread and wine are consecrated and so very truly become the Body and Blood of Jesus. During the prayer the priest makes many gestures and blessings which may seem strange, do speak to him afterwards and he happily talk to you about what happens. Part way through comes the following acclamation and response.

Priest The Mystery of Faith
All We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

The prayer continues and concludes:

Priest Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honour is yours,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

All stand and the Priest invites us to join in saying the Lord's Prayer

The Communion Rite

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Priest Deliver us, Lord, we pray...

All For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours, now and for ever.

The priest introduces the Peace

Priest The peace of the Lord be with you always.

All And with your Spirit.

In light of recent recommendations in order to reduce the spread of infection we share the Peace simply through a word or gesture rather than through anything physical.

All Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.

The priest then breaks the consecrated Host and drops a tiny fragment into the chalice to symbolise the re-joining of Christ's body and blood after it was spilled on the Cross. To prepare himself to receive communion he prays silently and we are encouraged to do the same. The priest invites us to receive communion by elevating the Broken Host and saying:

Priest Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

All Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Having acclaimed the Real Presence of Christ the clergy make their communion. If you have been joining us for the Rosary or would like to begin that meditation this might be an ideal moment to reflect on The Fifth Luminous Mystery – The Institution of the Eucharist or The First Glorious Mystery – The Resurrection? Perhaps offer a decade thinking about either of these as you make your spiritual communion?

We stand for the prayer after communion.

The Concluding Rites

Priest The Lord be with you
All And with your Spirit
Priest May Almighty God bless +you...
All Amen
Priest Go forth the mass is ended.
All Thanks be to God.

We remain standing and again the priest kisses the altar in a gesture of thanks and farewell. The priest then returns to the sacristy he prays silently for himself and for those who have received God in this mass as we sing the Recessional hymn:

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Christ triumphant, ever reigning,
Saviour, Master, King.
Lord of heav'n, our lives sustaining, hear us
as we sing:
Yours the glory and the crown, the high renown, th'eternal name | 3 Suff'ring servant, scorned, ill-treated, victim crucified!
Death is through the cross defeated,
sinners justified:
Yours the glory and the crown, the high renown, th'eternal name |
| 2 Word incarnate, truth revealing,
Son of Man on earth!
Pow'r and majesty concealing
by your humble birth.
Yours the glory and the crown, the high renown, th'eternal name | 4 Priestly King, enthroned for ever high in heav'n above!
Sin and death and hell shall never stifle hymns of love:
Yours the glory and the crown, the high renown, th'eternal name |
| 5 So, our hearts and voices raising through the ages long,
ceaselessly upon you gazing,
this shall be our song:
Yours the glory and the crown, the high renown, th'eternal name | |

Lent Groups

This year the Lent Group will meet to reflect on the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary, considering one each week. The group meets on Thursday evenings, locations as yet to be decided and dependent on where things are at with Covid-19.

For those for whom evenings are difficult we have decided to make more of the Lent Lunches that had been a mainstay of S. Saviour's Lent program. During Lent and Eastertide we shall be restoring the 12noon mass at S. Saviour's and following that there will be a free soup and roll lunch with donations collected for the Bishop's Lent Appeal. To make conversation a little more focused the brief homily will reflect on an aspect of the fundamental themes of the Christian faith (following the pattern but not content of the Alpha Course) then during lunch we will have the opportunity to discuss and ask questions. All are welcome but an idea of numbers will be helpful!

Civic Prayer Breakfast

The Civic Prayer Breakfast returns to the calendar again this year. In the past this has been a great event and an opportunity to meet with other Christians from a range of traditions to be encouraged and supported and to pray together for our city.

The prayer breakfast takes place on Friday 1st April at the King's Hall in Stoke, doors open at 7am for a prompt 7.30am start. Tickets are still £10 for a cooked breakfast, please see Fr Andrew for more details.

Prayer List

As we are returning to public worship now seems to be the ideal time to update the list of the sick particularly. If you would like particular names included let Fr Andrew know. Names on the pewsheets will appear for about a month, if prayer is still required they will be moved to the list of long-term/ongoing illness. The pewsheets are for short-term illness or those who have been rushed to hospital and are in acute need.

The Sick And Those In Need

Amanda, Ben, Malcolm Wood, James, Keith, Shirley, and June

The Recently Departed

Karen Burnett, Trevor Pickin, Mavis Nicholson, Michael Boyce, and Lilly Keeling

Anointing of the Sick

This sacrament is open to all who are ill in any way, it is no longer reserved to those who are dying. If you are unwell, or preparing for an operation you are most welcome to receive an anointing, again just let Fr Andrew know. If you, or a family member, or a member of this congregation goes into hospital please let us know – Fr Andrew may be many things but psychic, he is not.

Except when absent from the parish, Fr Andrew is on call 24/7 in case of emergencies, especially if someone is dying, he would much prefer a lost night's sleep than discover too late someone had died without prayer and the sacraments.

When Fr Andrew is away please get in touch with one of the Church Wardens and they will find you a priest.

Baptisms, Marriages, and Funerals

All of these offices are by arrangement please speak to Fr Andrew about instruction and availability

Notes on the Diary:

Days in italicised type called Ferias are the 'ordinary' weekdays of the year or season

Days in plain type are memoria, commemorations of the saints

Days in bold type are feasts, they are the more important days in the year

DAYS IN BOLD RED CAPITALS ARE SOLEMNITIES, THESE ARE THE MOST IMPORTANT DAYS AND IF POSSIBLE YOU ARE REQUIRED TO BE AT MASS. (as the BCP would say, red letter days!)

The letters after a saint's name indicate something about them M = Martyr, Bp = Bishop, Pr = Priest, Dn = Deacon, Rel = Religious, V = Virgin and so on.

The letter in brackets indicates the liturgical colour of the day, green, red, white and so on

The item in brackets is the mass/prayer intention for the day.

Please note that Fr Andrew's day of rest is a Saturday and Fr Glen's is a Monday, they are available in case of emergency otherwise please try and avoid contacting them on their respective rest days.
