SUNDAY 24th JANUARY 2021 THE THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Welcome to St Saviour's, especially if this is your first visit or if you haven't been to church in a while! If you would like say hello to one of the clergy or the hospitality team please do (hiding behind a pillar is fine too if you're a bit shy!) This booklet contains everything you need to follow this service, please join in as far as you would like but don't worry about remembering when to stand, or kneel, or sit, go along with what feels comfortable. A collection is taken during the Offertory Hymn, this helps to pay for the upkeep of the church and more importantly it helps to keep the mission and outreach of the church going, please give what you can. If you pay tax please fill out a Gift-Aid envelope, this allows us to claim extra dosh from the Government!

View From A Pew

I am sure than none of us even in our worst nightmares could ever envisage a pandemic like this one. But it seems logical that the 'experts' should have anticipated and prepared for such an event. All three readings today contain warnings and offer the opportunity to heed them. Nineveh did just that and God forgave and lifted His threat, and by doing so reveals Himself to be a patient, merciful and loving father who warns his children first before inflicting punishment and thereby gives them the chance to make changes and be saved. Once again listening and responding.

Confirmation

At present we are unsure when this service will take place, judging by the way things stand at present we will almost certainly be looking at a date in late spring unless the bishop decides to break with his custom and confirm during Lent (which I understand he did during Advent)

Ordination

We hope next week to be able to announce a proposed date for Fr Glen's ordination to the sacred priesthood and for his First Mass. This too is subject to Covid restrictions and an unpredictable situation, not to mention the ongoing discernment process. However as this will be a date in late June or early July we hope things should be more settled.

Curious Children

We are thinking of beginning a weekly zoom call for some of our children to explore the faith and exercise their curiosity, initially we would suggest an age range of 8-11 and would ask that a parent be present but off camera. It is hoped that this may work a bit like Sunday School but will be focused on the children's questions and areas of interest as well. If parents who think this might be valuable can get in touch with Fr Andrew to suggest suitable times and dates he would be most grateful.

The Introductory Rites

As the bell is rung all stand as the clergy approach the altar. As he comes to the altar the priest prays a silent prayer of preparation, he kisses the altar because it contains a relic and so asks for the saint's prayers for us all. The altar is a symbol of Jesus here with and so is treated with great respect.

Priest ✠ In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All Amen

Priest The Lord be with you.

All And with your Spirit.

The priest invites us to offer to God the times that we have done things we should not have done, knowing that God forgives all who are truly sorry. This means we can begin worship knowing we have been set right with God.

All I confess to almighty God and to you my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, and, striking their breast, all say through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask Blessed Mary, ever Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God

Priest May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

All Amen

Priest Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

Priest Christ, have mercy.

All Christ, have mercy.

Priest Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

Together we sing the Gloria, a hymn of praise to God. It reminds us that coming to church is a celebration of the wonderful things God has done, is doing, and will continue to do in our lives.

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer, you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
✠ with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

The priest then prays the Collect which sums up all our prayers for the day. After the prayer we sit for the readings, which come from the Old Testament (the Hebrew Bible Jesus would have known), followed by a psalm, then from the Epistles/Letters and a Gospel passage.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Jonah 3:1-5, 10

A reading from the prophet Jonah

The word of the Lord was addressed to Jonah: 'Up!' he said 'Go to Nineveh, the great city, and preach to them as I told you to.' Jonah set out and went to Nineveh in obedience to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was a city great beyond compare: it took three days to cross it. Jonah went on into the city, making a day's journey. He preached in these words, 'Only forty days more and Nineveh is going to be destroyed.' And the people of Nineveh believed in God; they proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least.

God saw their efforts to renounce their evil behaviour. And God relented: he did not inflict on them the disaster which he had threatened.

At the end:

Reader	The word of the Lord
All	Thanks be to God

Psalm 24(25):4-6, 7b-9

The Response is:

Lord, make me know your ways.

- | | | | |
|---|--|---|--|
| 1 | Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:
for you are God my Saviour. R. | 2 | Remember your mercy, Lord, and the love you have shown from of old.
In your love remember me,
because of your goodness, O Lord. R. |
| 3 | The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who stray,
he guides the humble in the right path;
he teaches his way to the poor. R. | | |

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 7:29-31

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians Brothers: our time is growing short. Those who have wives should live as though they had none, and those who mourn should live as though they had nothing to mourn for; those who are enjoying life should live as though there were nothing to laugh about; those whose life is buying things should live as though they had nothing of their own; and those who have to deal with the world should not become engrossed in it. I say this because the world as we know it is passing away.

At the end:

Reader The word of the Lord

All Thanks be to God

We stand as the Gospel is heralded

Priest Alleluia, alleluia.

The kingdom of God is close at hand: repent, and believe the Good News.

All Alleluia.

The Gospel

Mark 1:14-20

Deacon The Lord be with you

All And with your Spirit

Deacon ✠ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

All Glory to you, O Lord

After John had been arrested, Jesus went into Galilee. There he proclaimed the Good News from God. 'The time has come' he said 'and the kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the Good News.'

As he was walking along by the Sea of Galilee he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net in the lake – for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you into fishers of men.' And at once they left their nets and followed him.

Going on a little further, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John; they too were in their boat, mending their nets. He called them at once and, leaving their father Zebedee in the boat with the men he employed, they went after him.

At the end:

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord

All Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

The Homily

We sit for the Homily, this is a short talk about the readings we have just heard or the theme of the day. Its purpose is to help us better understand the scriptures and how wisdom and advice that is so old can still help us today. After the homily comes the Creed for which we stand. This is the Church's statement of belief and the word Creed comes from the Latin word for 'I believe.' If you are new to church or not a Christian do not feel you have to say the words with us. Have a read of them before the service (or if the Homily is boring then!) and if you feel you can agree with the words you are most welcome to join in saying them.

The Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father, and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead ☩ and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Following the Creed we sit.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

At the offertory the altar is prepared, the sacred vessels, the chalice (cup) and paten (plate) are laid out and the gifts of bread and wine are offered back to God who first gave them to us. To mark these things out as holy offerings set aside for God blessings particular prayers are said. The priest washes his hands asking for purity (and practically its more hygienic, especially in these Covid times)

The priest prays silently asking Our Lady the saints will join with us in prayer, he then asks us to pray with and for him as we stand:

Priest Pray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

All May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy church.

The priest then prays the prayer over the gifts before beginning the Eucharistic (thanksgiving) Prayer, saying:

Priest The Lord be with you.

All And with your Spirit.

Priest Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right and just.

The priest goes on to say the Preface, this speaks to the theme of the day on special occasions or reminds us of important things to do with Jesus' mission to us. It begins the Eucharistic Prayer which is a remembering of both the Last Supper, and Jesus' sacrifice of himself on the Cross. The preface ends with words used to greet Jesus when he entered Jerusalem on Palm Sunday.

All Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

All kneel or sit and the priest continues with the prayer during which the gifts of bread and wine are consecrated and so very truly become the Body and Blood of Jesus. During the prayer the priest makes many gestures and blessings which may seem strange, do speak to him afterwards and he happily talk to you about what happens. Part way through comes the following acclamation and response.

Priest The Mystery of Faith

All We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

The prayer continues and concludes:

Priest Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honour is yours,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

All stand and the Priest invites us to join in saying the Lord's Prayer

The Communion Rite

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Priest Deliver us, Lord, we pray...

All For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours, now and for ever.

The priest introduces the Peace

Priest The peace of the Lord be with you always.

All And with your Spirit.

In light of recent recommendations in order to reduce the spread of infection we share the Peace simply through this call and response rather than through any physical gesture; as was the practice up until really quite recently.

All Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.

The priest then breaks the consecrated Host and drops a tiny fragment into the chalice to symbolise the re-joining of Christ's body and blood after it was spilled on the Cross. To prepare himself to receive communion he prays silently and we are encouraged to do the same. The priest invites us to receive communion by elevating the Broken Host and saying:

Priest Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.
All Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof,
but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Having acclaimed the Real Presence of Christ the clergy make their communion.

If you have been joining us for the Rosary or would like to begin that meditation this might be an ideal moment to reflect on The Fifth Luminous Mystery – The Institution of the Eucharist or The First Glorious Mystery – The Resurrection? Perhaps offer a decade thinking about either of these as you make your spiritual communion?

We stand for the prayer after communion.

The Concluding Rites

Priest The Lord be with you
All And with your Spirit
Priest May Almighty God bless ☩ you...
All Amen
Deacon Go forth the mass is ended.
All Thanks be to God.

We remain standing and again the priest kisses the altar in a gesture of thanks and farewell. The priest then returns to the sacristy he prays silently for himself and for those who have received God in this mass.

Prayer List

As we are returning to public worship now seems to be the ideal time to update the list of the sick particularly. If you would like particular names included let Fr Andrew know. Names on the pewsheets will appear for about a month, if prayer is still required they will be moved to the list of long-term/ongoing illness. The pewsheets are for short-term illness or those who have been rushed to hospital and are in acute need.

The Sick and Those in Need

Jack, John, Darren, Terry, Pamela, Fr Chris, Fr Ron, Audrey, Mike and Amina Monir

The Recently Departed

Dorothy Ralphs, Vera Rushton, Pauline Wowra, Toni Cooper, and Tim

Anointing of the Sick

This sacrament is open to all who are ill in any way, it is no longer reserved to those who are dying. If you are unwell, or preparing for an operation you are most welcome to receive an anointing, again just let Fr Andrew know. If you, or a family member, or a member of this congregation goes into hospital please let us know – Fr Andrew may be many things but psychic, he is not.

Except when absent from the parish, Fr Andrew is on call 24/7 in case of emergencies, especially if someone is dying, he would much prefer a lost night's sleep than discover too late someone had died without prayer and the sacraments.

When Fr Andrew is away please get in touch with one of the Church Wardens and they will find you a priest.

Baptisms, Marriages, and Funerals

All of these offices are by arrangement please speak to Fr Andrew about instruction and availability

Notes on the Diary:

Days in italicised type called Ferias are the 'ordinary' weekdays of the year or season

Days in plain type are memoria, commemorations of the saints

Days in bold type are feasts, they are the more important days in the year

DAYS IN BOLD RED CAPITALS ARE SOLEMNITIES, THESE ARE THE MOST IMPORTANT DAYS AND IF POSSIBLE YOU ARE REQUIRED TO BE AT MASS. (as the BCP would say, red letter days!)

The letters after a saint's name indicate something about them M = Martyr, Bp = Bishop, Pr = Priest, Dn = Deacon, Rel = Religious, V = Virgin and so on.

The letter in brackets indicates the liturgical colour of the day, green, red, white and so on

The item in brackets is the mass/prayer intention for the day.

Please note that Fr Andrew's usual day of rest is Saturday and Fr Glen's is Monday, they are available in case of emergency otherwise please try and avoid contacting them as they take some down time
